Let's get to know a few Wise Women...

Meet Alice – the founder and Executive Director of WWGP, and author of Discovery Dating!

- Alice's favorite indoor activities include crafts, beadwork, and puzzles
- A sound that Alice loves is the gong
- Alice would name her autobiography "Be like Water"
- Alice's favorite quote is "Everybody can do something, but nobody can do everything."
- and what Alice misses most about being a kid is playing in the woods

Meet Heather – an intern at WWGP!

- Heather grew up in the country between Antigo and Wausau.
- Heather's area of study is a Masters of Counseling and has a Bachelor of Social Work with a Spanish minor.
- At WWGP, Heather is involved with Wise Youth, Women's Group and White Bison.
- Her hobbies are reading, writing, dancing, traveling and some singing.
- and Heather's favorite quote is "Be the change you wish to see." -Ghandi

High School Wise Youth practice their Leadership skills!

High School Wise Youth attended the 10th Annual Youth as Partners in Civic Leadership Conference (YPCL) on Nov. 7th-9th, 2014. They facilitated a Discovery Dating workshop about the benefits and pitfalls in our relationships for over 30 participants. Also they created an interactive game called Capture the Cause for over 125 youth from around WI to learn more about the history of YPCL! Way to go Wise Youth!
